
Thank you for joining us to celebrate our inaugural Hong Kong auction

It was a great honour to be in the company of Caroline Wilson CMG, British Consul General to Hong Kong, and collaborate with Asia Week Hong Kong to make a truly memorable occasion. We must also thank our kind whisky sponsors Springbank 1828 and Glenfarclas, the last two remaining family owned single malt whisky distillers in Scotland.

The Thornhill Stem Cup on Film

Join our head of Asian Art, Lee Young, as he takes a closer look at an auction highlight in this short film.

The Thornhill Stem Cup, a Ming Xuande (1426-35) mark and period blue and white stem cup, is an excellent example of its type and is virtually unseen outside museum collections.
